MAN MOST RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCCESS OF PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO LOUISVILLE.

LOGAN C. MURRAY

By courtesy of Louisville Herald.

Cloverporter who is now one of Louisville's most successful business men.

Mr. Murray was more responsible than any other man for President Roosevelt's visit to Louisville on Tuesday, April 4. He went to Washington and extended the invitation to Mr. Roosevelt to visit Louisville and was largely instrumental in making the welcome he received so royal and so satisfactory. Mr. Murray was seated in the President's carriage, in which were also Governor Becknam and Secretary Loeb, in the great parade through the crowded streets of Louisville to the courthouse, where Mr. Roosevelt delivered an appropriate address, amid the applause of thousands, who welcomed him to the State and its metropolis with a spirit typically Kentuckian.

In reference to Mr. Murray the Louisville Post says editorially: "The admirable arrangements for the reception of the President put the public under special obligation to Mr. Murray."

"It is no easy task to reconcile the wishes of large numbers of men; to give to each his place and get from him his assistance. "Mr. Murray has the tact made genuine by courtesy; he has the willingness to take pains that no detail may fail where failure would mean confusion. The due order observed, the general spirit of satisfaction and good feeling expressed, the entire absence of friction, all testify to the value of the work of the Chairman in Chief, who was so admirably seconded by the Mayor, by Gen. Castelman, by Col. Beiknap, by Mr. Bowen, President of the Board of Trade, and by Mr. McDowell, President of the Commercial Club. "The day was one to be recalled with satisfaction, and in that feeling let us give the credit to the gentlemen who, at great personal inconvenience, have devoted their time to so arranging matters that in two hours the people of Louisville and of the State, through the Governor, could show to the President something of their warm interest in him and a sincere patriotic devotion to the head of the people."

DEATH OF CENTENARIAN.

End Comes to Cornelius Burk, Said to be That Old, At Victoria.

Cornelius Burk, one of the oldest residents of the Victoria neighborhood, died Sunday night about 10 o'clock. Death was due primarily to senility. As to Mr. Burk's age there is a dispute, some being of the opinion that it is 100 years while others say that he was about ninety-four.

Mr. Burk fell into a fire several weeks ago and was seriously burned on one side, but, as the burns were healing when death came, it is not believed that this hastened the end.

Mr. Burk first settled in Canada when he came to this country from Ireland. He located at Victoria about fifty years ago. He is survived by a wife and seven sons, all grown. The sons are John, of this city; Tom, of Givens, Texas; Chas. of Owensboro; Neel, Mike, Dan and Jerry.

One daughter, Mrs. Kate Jones, of near this city, also survives.

The funeral was held yesterday. The interment was at St. Rose's cemetery, near this city, where the services were conducted by Father C. Brey.

Child Has Narrow Escape.

Alma Pile, the seven-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Pile, of Harned, caught fire in the field, where Mr. Pile was plowing, and came near being burned to death last Wednesday.

H. M. Jolly, of Hardinsburg, was here Monday.

FINANCE COMMITTEE PROVIDES FOR FIVE EQUITY WAREHOUSES.

Tobacco Of Growers Who Really Need Help To Be Handled Here And At Hardinsburg, Kirk, Jolly And Stephensport--The Movement To Be Financed By Same Concern As The Daviess Equity Houses.

The finance committee appointed at the tobacco growers' convention at Hardinsburg on April 1, to put on foot a warehouse plan in Breckenridge county similar to that in vogue in Daviess county, has succeeded in accomplishing the work it was empowered to do. Farmers who need help through a warehouse plan, because of lack of funds or poor barns, can now have their tobacco handled at Cloverport, Hardinsburg, Stephensport, Kirk or Jolly, and can receive an advance on it or not, just as they wish. Experienced tobaccoists have been selected by the committee to manage the warehouses at these places, which are so separated as to make it reasonably convenient for every tobacco grower who needs help to make deliveries. The warehouses will be financed by the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse company, which is the money power behind the Equity warehouses in Owensboro. The terms on which tobacco will be received and handled by the warehouses are explained in a subsequent statement, addressed by E. B. Oglesby, a member of the finance committee, to the farmers of Breckenridge and Hancock counties.

Great credit is due the finance committee for what they have accomplished in, comparatively, so short a time, through great personal inconvenience. They were very busy not only in the county, last week, but elsewhere, as they made trips both to Louisville and Owensboro to complete the work of putting the warehouse plan on foot. The committee were in Louisville the first part of last week to confer with the Louisville warehouse company, and in Owensboro, accompanied by several of the men who are to manage the warehouses in the county, during the latter part of the week, to inspect the Equity warehouses there, with which they were well pleased.

TO THE FARMERS OF BRECKENRIDGE AND HANCOCK COUNTIES:

Your committee has made arrangements to handle your tobacco at the following places and by the following parties and on following terms:

Messrs. Crawford and Squires at Cloverport and Stephensport; John O. Riley at Hardinsburg, Sheeran & Jarboe at Kirk; and Lyons Bros. at Jolly.

Will advance to all who want it $4 on grades A, B, and C; $3.50 on grade D; and $3.00 on grade H, and O, leaf and lugs, and $2.00 on good, sound merchantable trash. On all low grade and non-descript leaf and trash nothing is advanced. For these tobaccoes the rehandler receives fifty cents per hundred and gives proceeds to the grower as soon as returns are made. And farmers are advised that the best thing to do with all such is to have it prized and shipped to warehouse and sold as soon as they can.

The rehandlers are to receive and weigh, pick, pluck, redry, furnish hogsh ad, fire and tornado insurance and storage until November 1, for all of which you pay $1.00 per hundred pounds and that money will be advanced by the Louisville Warehouse Co., same as rest at 6 per cent.

This tobacco is to be graded and classed as taken off of wagons by a grader, appointed and paid by your committee, and a member of the American Society of Equity. This tobacco will be intermingled in house, but each man, in final settlement, will be settled with by grade his tobacco is in. This settlement will be made by your committee and the rehandler. This tobacco never goes out of our control until October 1, 1906. All rehandlers are under bond.

Your committee would advise that all farmers bring their tobacco on in good merchantable order, and would in vite inspection of the manner of handling this tobacco.

To the farmer who thinks he wants to handle his tobacco at home I would say go to Louisville and see the class of tobacco being sold by farmers there and how classed and handled. Then go to one of our warehouses and see if he cannot readily see that his tobacco is improved much more than the cost of re-handling.

And again, we have contracted with these gentlemen to rehandle our tobacco and it is only justice to them that we give them all the tobacco we can.

Many farmers have the idea that the advance is all they will ever get out of it. Now the man that thinks this is certainly not very consistent, for he becomes a dealer and rehandles and redrys and classes this tobacco and holds until buyers want these classes and kinds. Just this way the dealer has always done and his money has come through taking your tobacco and putting each class to itself and where it belongs and then selling each class to the man that wanted it and would pay for that class.

WHAT THE FISCAL COURT HAS DONE.

Hardinsburg, Ky., April 11.—(Special.)—The fiscal court was in session last week.

John D. Ryan was exonerated from paying poll tax for the year 1905.

Dr. J. T. Baker was allowed the sum of $119.50 for medical attention to paupers and inmates of county jail.

Dr. T. J. Glascock was allowed $36 for services rendered smallpox patients.

Wm. F. Davenport and Ezra Basham were exonerated from paying poll tax for the year 1905.

Settlements were made with the sheriff, F. P. Payne, by W. F. Hoek, special commissioner of the court, for taxes for the year 1904. They were confirmed and ordered to record.

W. K. Barnes was continued as commissioner and receiver.

The county levy was fixed at eighteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property assessed for taxation, and a poll tax of $1.50. The levy is divided as follows: six cents for the pauper fund, six cents for the general expense fund, and six cents for the sinking fund. One dollar of the poll tax was ordered paid into the general expense fund, and fifty cents of the poll tax was ordered paid into the road fund.

On motion of H. G. Vessells, a road tax of 10c on each one hundred dollars worth of property, was levied. Squire Royalty was against any road tax and Squire Lon Jarboe wanted to increase the tax to 15c, but the 10c tax was finally levied.

The salaries of the county officials were allowed for the year at the usual amounts.

It was ordered that all road hands be required to work on the public roads of the county four days in the year, except that in cases of emergency, they may be required to work as many days as necessary.

S. T. Smith, of Kirk, was elected county road supervisor, over Geo. N. Harris, J. J. Severs and J. V. St. Clair. He is to be allowed $1.75 a day for each day he is employed. He was empowered to appoint as many district supervisors as he deem necessary, not, however, to exceed one for each magisterial district. All district supervisors are to be paid $1.50 per day.

Dr. J. T. Baker was re-elected poor house physician for the ensuing year. Lee Walls was continued as poor house commissioner.

It was ordered that the proceedings of this term of court be published in the Breckenridge Democrat.

H. M. Beard was down from Hardinsburg Friday.

NEW SCHOOL BOOKS SOON.

New Ruling Affects This County--Old Contract to be Canceled.

State Superintendent Fuqua, in a circular letter addressed Saturday morning to County School Superintendents of Kentucky, calls their attention to a judgment of the Mason Circuit Court for $10,000 against the American Book Company, being the full amount of its bond to counties under the old system, and notifies them that it is necessary, the company refusing to renew this bond, that all counties having such contracts shall cancel them, and at once substitute the books of the State uniform series.

This ruling will affect the schools of Breckenridge county, as the American Book company has refused to renew the bond mentioned above. Under the old contract the schools of the county would continue to use the school books of the American book company until 1907, but, because of the change effected by the judgment of the Mason county circuit court, the State uniform series will be substituted next fall.
